EXTREME CLOSE-UP

A flickering street light against a dark Karachi night sky. Warm orange glow. Camera holds still.
SOUND: Ambient street noise fades in. Distant chai dhaba sounds.

0:02 – 0:04MOOD

TOP-DOWN CLOSE-UP

A steaming cup of chai shot from directly above. The liquid swirls gently. Orange light reflects off the surface.
SOUND: Chan chan chan — the rhythmic metallic sound of the malish wala's steel holder begins.

0:04 – 0:07HOOK

CLOSE-UP

The malish wala's steel holder, tapping and chiming. Hands are steady, rhythmic. The sound fills the frame.
SOUND: Chan chan chan continues, hypnotic and building.

0:07 – 0:10PRODUCT

CLOSE-UP

The steel holder is set down. A hand reaches in and picks up a bottle of IMSRA hair oil. Product label clearly visible. Oil is poured slowly into the palm.
SOUND: Chan chan stops. Silence for a beat. Then — a soft, satisfied purr begins.

0:10 – 0:12COMEDY

LONG SHOT

Several people at the dhaba — sipping chai, eating, chatting — all pause and slowly turn to look in one direction. Confused, amused expressions.

SOUND: Purring grows louder. A few curious murmurs from the crowd.

REVEAL

LONG SHOT — REVEAL

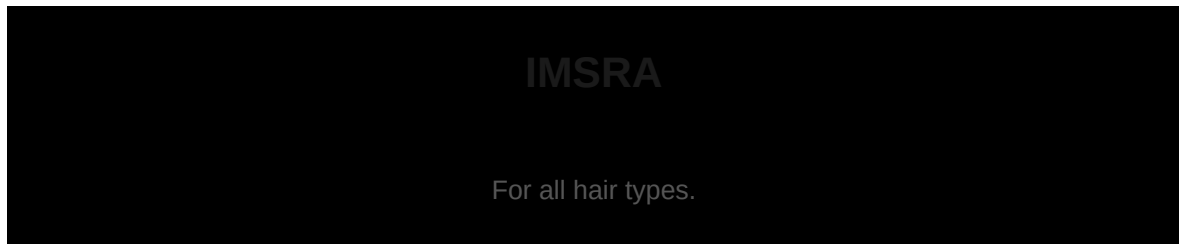

Pull back to reveal the malish wala, under a warm orange light, lovingly massaging a cat sitting upright on a wooden chair. The cat looks absolutely blissful.

SOUND: Purring peaks. Hold on the image.

TITLE CARD — BLACK SCREEN

SOUND: Silence.

Sound design note	The entire ad is carried by ambient sound — no music. The chan chan of the steel holder IS the hook. Record it separately on set for clean post-production use.
Lighting note	No fill lights. Let the contrast between the orange sodium street lamp and the dhaba fluorescents do the work. Keep it raw and authentic.
Cat direction	The cat must look genuinely relaxed. Scout cats in advance. Have a wrangler on set. Shoot this scene last when the animal is comfortable on location.
